

YOUR BIGGER FUTURE™ ACHIEVABLE GOALS

THIS QUARTER'S GOALS	1 YEAR GOALS	3 YEAR GOALS	LIFETIME GOALS
Family and friends
By December 2015 - to keep close to all family and support as much as possible. Help youngest get a new job.	By December 2016 - to have helped son and daughter settle into life in London, to have helped elder daughter with wedding, to help step son with golfing endeavours and step daughter with career choices.	By December 2018 - to have helped all children secure good jobs and be happy at work and play.	To have been the best inspiring, encouraging husband, dad, step-dad, brother, son and friend I could be.
Work and financial
To have agreed all targets and budgets for 2016.	To have achieved targets, by making reasonable profit and to have expanded and moved to larger offices and for funds under management to be increased.	For the company to have achieved its 3 year profit forecasts and capital value to have increased.	To have helped drive, direct and develop our company to the best of my ability.
Fitness and health
Sort my foot operation and get knees checked again.	Run two or three times a week, play regular golf and get handicap down to 10. Eat and drink healthily and keep to Calorie Controlled Lifestyle.	Run two or three times a week, play regular golf and get handicap down to 8. Eat and drink healthily and keep to Calorie Controlled Lifestyle.	To be as fit as possible having followed a Calorie Controlled Lifestyle and be free of preventable diseases.
Wild card things!
To plan my 5th charity challenge and learn to ski for it!	To have handed over a charity cheque for £12K to the children's oncology playroom at local hospital.	To have our company 2018 charity year planned and coming together.	To have had fun, helped raise money for charities and to have 'pushed myself' and achieved as much as practically possible.